If I am skippering a boat (regardless of ownership), and an incident occurs where I am at fault, my parents and I will be responsible for the damage. Regardless of fault, I will notify my coach immediately when any accident occurs in which I am involved. The coach will then report the incident to the program director as soon as possible, who will then contact the parents.

Parent Code of Conduct

I promise to uphold the Racing Rules of Sailing and honor the spirit of Corinthian sailing, shall pledge honesty and integrity in general, encourage good sportsmanship, and shall not deviate from the truth, or break rules which govern our sport of sailing, nor tolerate such behavior in others.

I promise to maintain a positive mental attitude and be responsible for my conduct as a representative of TAYC, at all times following the various rules and regulations given by TAYC Coaches, the TAYC Director, the TAYC Junior Sailing Committee, the TAYC Parent of Day, and personnel from the host club.

I understand that any violation of these rules will allow TAYC to restrict my, and/or my sailor's participation in other TAYC events.

During regattas, parents must support all sailors, not just one or a set group.

No parent may hire an instructor who is employed by TAYC during the junior program weeks to conduct a practice, clinic, or any other work related to sailing without first, (i) allowing all TAYC sailors the opportunity to participate in the practice, clinic or other work or (ii) obtaining the permission of an officer of TAYC, provided that the officer is not the parent organizing the practice, clinic or other work.

Parents will follow and support all safety procedures given by coaches and other responsible adults, understanding the paramount importance of safety. Parents will notify a coach or other responsible adult if another sailor is in danger.

Parents will respect the property of others, and neither steal, damage, destroy nor borrow another's property without permission, nor tolerate such behavior by other parents or sailors.

Parents will not use non-prescribed drugs, understanding that a drug-free environment is required to set proper standards for our young sailors.

All parents will treat TAYC members, sailors, coaches, competitors, regatta officials, hosts and all others with respect, regardless of race, religion, gender, national origin or abilities. Any issue parents have with other TAYC parents or sailors must be taken to TAYC coaches or the TAYC Director (whomever is most appropriate), and NOT directly to the sailor or the sailor's parent.

Parents must not abuse other competitors, members and personnel of the host club, race committee or jury, or other parents or sailors, whether verbally, physically, or emotionally, nor tolerate such conduct in others. I understand that swearing, in any context, is unacceptable behavior for a representative of TAYC.

Parents will behave and dress at all times in a manner consistent with the high standards expected of TAYC.

Each sailor's parent or the authorized adult must pick up that sailor at the end of class or practice. No arrangements for after-care are available at TAYC.

By signing this code of conduct, all parents agree that participation in the TAYC Junior Sailing Program is a privilege, and participation may be suspended or revoked unilaterally by the TAYC Board for violations of this code with or without a hearing.
